Magnetic Inner-Brilliance™ Guide

2 easy steps to attract clients by stepping into your own inner-brilliance

What if the key to your success is your inner-brilliance that's been covered up by fear, worry and procrastination you feel constantly?

I know these emotions all too well, because they were once the story that played over and over in my mind.

There are only two things that matter

You & Your Inner-Brilliance!

Step 1 Ground Zero: Your Story - What is Your Story and What Is it Costing You?

We all have a story. There is one thing that rings true in all stories big or small, they block you from feeling confident and shining your inner-brilliance. Your thoughts, beliefs and your story have kept you sitting on the sideline watching what everyone else is creating and watching their success.

How would it feel if your path to success felt more like you because you uncovered your uniqueness? You discovered the brilliance inside of you that magnetically attracts clients?

Reality Check Time

There is a story that plays over and over in your mind sabotaging your success. The story that creates the circumstances you are currently dealing with. In order to feel confident about what you have to offer as well as create your own path to success, you have to get rid of those thoughts that bring about fear of taking action, the comparison trap, the constant worry if you will be able to make your business work and the self doubt that keeps you from connecting with potential clients.

Release This Story Ritual

Write below your thoughts that continue to plague your mind. Beliefs that keep you from moving forward in your life and business. Do a “brain dump” of every negative belief sabotaging your success (print a copy).

Now I want you to burn it. Look for a safe place to burn your story and the beliefs that you have been holding on to for way too long. Burning this paper symbolizes you releasing your beliefs and thoughts that were holding you back from feeling confident, attracting clients and making money.

Step 2 Your New State Of Being - Write Your New Story

Today, make a decision that you're going to tell a new story that leads you down a different path to your success. Transforming your old story that has kept you stuck is the new currency for success.

Write a compelling story for the life and business you desire. The business that feels like you - authentic, brilliant, confident and successful.

What do you desire for your business? As you write, imagine and write “as if” what you desire is happening in the present, not in the future.

Success requires imagination.

When you write your new story, think about the words you use. Words have power and energy. What you think and write is what will ultimately manifest in your life and business.

Congratulations! You Did It!

Now that you have released that old story from your mind and have created a new story for your life and business, what are you going to do now?

While this guide is a great starting point on your path to feeling more confident so you magnetically attract clients, it is the first step on your new path.

I know this path, because it was the path I walked after burning my own story that had blocked my happiness, confidence and abundance for too long. I created a new story and a new path so that I could inspire and empower women to uncover their inner-brilliance.

If you're struggling to stand out from the crowd and can't get past your own limiting beliefs, I invite you to a no-obligation Discovery Session to find out how I can help you.

Much love,

Your living is determined not so much by what life brings to you as by the attitude you bring to life; not so much by what happens to you as by the way your mind looks at what happens.
~ Khalil Gibran ~
